I am opposed to BPL if it will cause any interference to the amateur radio service.   I am licensed as N4ACR.

It seems like a good idea if does not cause interference. We could use some competition to DSL, cable modem and other means of providing internet connections.